What?

SCORES (Students' Computing Research Symposium) is an annual research conference jointly organized by University of Ljubljana, University of Maribor, and University of Primorska. Its goal is to encourage students to present and publish their research work in the domain of computer science and to facilitate cooperation and creativity.

For whom?

We invite both bachelor's and master's students to submit research papers from all fields of computer science, including, but not limited to, the following:

- Algorithms and data structures
- Computer architecture and organization
- Computer graphics
- Information management systems
- Human-computer interaction
- Intelligent systems
- Parallel and distributed computing
- Pattern recognition
- Programming languages
- Software engineering
- Theoretical computer science

When?

The conference will be held on October 6, 2022.

Other important dates:

Submission deadline: August 1, 2022
Notification of acceptance: September 23, 2022
Submission of camera-ready paper: September 30, 2022

How?

Papers can only be submitted online, via the EasyChair system. The link to the system is provided on the conference website.

The length of the paper is limited to 4 pages. Authors are strongly encouraged to use the template available on the conference website.

At least the first author of each paper must be a Bachelor's (BSc) or Master's (MSc) student.

Master's students must write their papers in English. Bachelor's students may choose either English or Slovene.

Simultaneous submissions are not allowed: before submitting your paper to SCORES'22, you will have to confirm that the paper (or a version similar to it) is currently not being reviewed for any other conference or journal.

All forms of academic dishonesty (e.g., plagiarism) will be dealt with accordingly.

How do we review the papers?

We rank the submitted papers according to the following criteria:

- Novelty. Is the material presented in the paper sufficiently novel to warrant acceptance? Are the paper's contributions clearly stated?
- Technical correctness. Is the paper technically sound?
- Validation. Are all claims theoretically and/or empirically (experimentally) substantiated?
- Organization. Is the paper well-organized?
- Presentation. Is the paper readable? Is the language acceptable?

If your paper passes the acceptance threshold, it will be designated either for oral presentation or for poster presentation.

What can I expect in return?

Having a paper presented at a conference and published in the conference proceedings is a reward in itself. Nevertheless, the authors of the best papers will receive additional awards.
